him. An ordinary man performing an incredibly brave feat under impossible conditions . God bless Desmond Does.6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Heroism Plus Strong ConvictionsBy Rev. Lane LomanFascinated by the act of heroism displayed by one who carried no gun, but had a general one love for his fellow soldiers. His religious convictions are commendable.16 of 17 people found the following review helpful. Andrew Garfield will play Doss in movie version!By LJNThis book is for younger people. Does not detail the war experiences as much. Read the book by Booten Herndon instead. WATCH FOR THE MOVIE VERSION starring Andrew Garfield as Doss and directed by Mel Gibson. This is going to be a smash hit.

Infantry men who once ridiculed and scoffed at Desmonds simple faith and refusal to carry a weapon owed their lives to him. In the midst of a fierce firefight on Okinawa that felled approximately 75 men from the 1st Battalion, Private Doss refused to seek cover and carried his stricken comrades to safety one by one. This and other heroic acts earned him the highest honor America can bestow on one of her sons - the Congressional Medal of Honor.
