General Richard Taylor : Destruction And Reconstruction before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Destruction And Reconstruction:

In this unique series, the Civil War comes vividly to life, as those who were there give eye-witness accounts from both sides of the bloody conflict. A sugar farmer and gentleman politician with no military training before the war, General Richard Taylor--son of President Zachary Taylor--plays a major role in the Red River campaign. Out of print since 1879.
