George C Underwood : History of the Twenty-Sixth Regiment of the North Carolina troops,: In the Great War, 1861-'65 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised History of the Twenty-Sixth Regiment of the North Carolina troops,: In the Great War, 1861-'65:

Unit history of this famous North Carolina regiment in the American Civil War. The 26th served in Pettigrew's Brigade, Heth's Division, Hill's Corps of the Army of Northern Virginia. It particularly distinguished itself at Gettysburg, where it sustained the highest total loss of any Confederate regiment (687) in the battle
