John Weal : Jagdgeschwader 27 'Afrika' (Osprey Aviation Elite 12) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jagdgeschwader 27 'Afrika' (Osprey Aviation Elite 12):

John Weal is a preeminent Luftwaffe historian and aircraft profiler. Any aviation enthusiast such as myself, would require this volume in their library. This is a thorough history of Jagdgeschwader 27 "Afrika" not just the amazing campaign in North Africa with the great ace Hans-Joachim Marseille. See. German Fighter Ace Hans-Joachim Marseille: The Life Story of the Star of Africa (Schiffer Military History). I highly recommend this volume as well as. Bf 109 Aces of North Africa and the Mediterranean (Aircraft of the Aces). Another volume by John Weal that I really enjoyed and highly recommend is. Jagdgeschwader 52: The Experten (Aviation Elite Units). which features the greatest ace of all time Erich Hartmann. Also of potential interest: the German ace Franz Stigler, featured prominently in Adam Makos book "A Higher Call", began his career with JG 27. A Higher Call: An Incredible True Story of Combat and Chivalry in the War-Torn Skies of World War II of 0 people found the following review helpful. Rommel's Fighter Wing By James D. Crabtree The Afrika Korps could not have been the success it was without air superiority, and JG 27 was the unit which provided the DAK with that umbrella. John Weal does an excellent job of narrating the combat record of this fascinating unit, which also saw service in Poland, France, the Balkans and Russia. The book includes photos, maps, and original artwork featuring unit insignia and aircraft markings. This book is a must-read for anyone who is a student of the Desert War. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Another superb book from John Weal. By Alte Adler I get every one of this Osprey series, and the only thing I don't really like is reviewing them each time I get one. They are all great and a necessity for anyone with an aviation library at home. My only suggestion for the author is to work longer hours and produce more books for us each year.

Synonymous with the Afrika Korps and the campaign in North Africa, JG 27 provided Rommel's army with fighter protection for virtually the whole 'roller coaster ride that was the war in the Western Desert from 1941-43. Formed in Germany on 1 October 1939 (with Adolf Galland as CO of I. Gruppe), JG 27 saw considerable action both during the Battles of France and Britain, downing 146 aircraft in the latter campaign alone. Sent to North Africa in April 1941, the geschwader had an immediate impact on the campaign, which had up until then been dominated by the Allies. The third volume in the Aviation Elite series on a German fighter geschwader, this book will once again prove popular with Luftwaffe enthusiasts and hobbyists alike.

From the Publisher Looking at elite fighter and bomber units in action, these books draw on profile artworks, black and white photographs, fully detailed appendices and breathtaking first hand accounts. About the Author Arguably the world's finest profile artist, John Weal's love of German aircraft makes this first volume in the Aviation Elite series a treat for students of the subject. He has written seven volumes in the Aces series and three in the Combat Aircraft series.
