accounts are needed. there are plentiful truthfull facts about the macedonian people that proves that they are the native people of the macedonian region.

Overturing the 20th century's prevalent view of the Macedonians, Damianopoulos uses three domains of evidence - historical documentation, cognitive self-descriptor reports, and sociocultural features - to demonstrate that the Macedonians are a unique, non-Slav, non-Greek, ethnic identity.

"This book embodies fresh thinking and an innovative perspective on one of Europe's most intractable frozen conflicts, with a commonsense view of recent history. It will stimulate debate in many difficult areas." James Pettifer, professor, St Cross College, Oxford University
