Frederick Law Olmsted : The Papers of Frederick Law Olmsted: Slavery and the South, 1852--1857 (Volume 2)
before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Papers of Frederick Law Olmsted: Slavery and the South, 1852--1857 (Volume 2):

Olmsted the man belongs to his own time, but his work and words continue to have meaning today... The editors are preserving a life and a work instructive for the future as well as of the past. -- Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography

"Olmsted the man belongs to his own time, but his work and words continue to have meaning today... The editors are preserving a life and a work instructive for the future as well as of the past." (Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography)"An indispensable work for any student of the Old South. The book is not merely indispensable; it is challenging and controversial." (New York Times)
